Pulling Up Stakes to Return to Patterson.

WHAT THE MANAGER SAYS.

The Silk Mill to Leave--Its Establishment Here Was Merely an Experiment.

Mr. Bamford, manager of the silk mill, told us this morning that he was pulling up stakes to return to Patterson, N. J. The establishment of the plant here was merely an experiment and it has gone far enough to convince the manager that at this time and in his line of business it could not be made a success. The silk mill gets all its material from New York and when the raw silk has been made into ribbon it has to be shipped back to New York to be marketed through the commission house there; the products can not be directly distributed as is the case with the cotton mills. This necessitated paying express charges both ways, since in the silk business freight transportation is too slow. The cost of receiving and returning 100 pounds of material here is four dollars, while in Patterson it is fifteen cents. This enormous transportation charge would eat up the profits of the business.

In addition the management has encountered much difficulty in securing enough capable help. Though the plant was a small one they have not been able to secure enough laborers to run all the looms; the cost of labor also was quite as great as in the north. These causes combined convinced Mr. Bamford that it would not be profitable for the company to move its business south. Such a move would entail great expense, and loss of business in the interim, and the substantial returns would not justify the risk. The manager further stated that he had found it difficult to teach applicants for places the duties required of them.

The plant will be moved at once. Mr. Bamford leaves tonight for Patterson, but will return in the course of a few days to wind up the business here. It will be seen from the above that the venture has not failed through local causes, but through the nature of the business and the high transportation charges. Mr. Bamford expressed himself as appreciating the kindness shown him in the undertaking by the business men of the city. He has made many friends while here and Greensboro will be sorry to lose him as a citizen.

IN REGARD TO TAXES.

The Sheriff Has Secured an Extension of Time.

The new law passeed by the last legislature in regard to paying taxes has put the people on their mettle. Many have an idea that the law refers to this year's taxes, and some have already been in to settle with the sheriff. But as he has not yet received the tax books from the registrar of deeds he is unable to accommodate the would-be tax payers.

The law which says a man may be imprisoned for his taxes refers only to taxes which have been due for over a year. It should have taken effect at our August term of court, but Sheriff Harkins succeeded in getting from Judge Adams an extension of time to the December term.

In the meantime the sheriff will continue to levy and sell property for taxes, and at the next term of court the names of those who have not paid will be returned to the presiding judge, when he will make such dispositions of their cases as he may see fit.

It would be well for all who have not paid their 1896 taxes to do so at once and save further trouble and cost. If the taxes are not paid by the next term of court the delinquents may be imprisoned until a settlement is made.

Lawn Party.

It will no doubt be a welcome announcement to the young people, as well as to others, that the ladies of West Market street Methodist Church will provide at this time of dearth of entertainment a lawn party next Friday evening on the delightful lawn of Rev. L. W. Crawford, West Market street. All the usual refreshments will be served, and in addition there will be a program of music and recitations given in the parlors.

Further information will by given in to-morrow's paper.

Sent to the Asylum.

Gaston Gamble, an inmate of the county home, was sent to the state hospital for the insane this morning. He is an old man, being 65 or 70 years of age, and this is the third time he has been sent to the asylum. It is probable that he will end his days there.

Horrible Crime of a Man Who Was Drunk and Jealous.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

President Andrews Will Remain.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 14.—E. Benjamin Andrews has withdrawn his resignation as president of Brown University. Tonight the students are celebrating the event, and the university will reopen tomorrow with renewed activity and vigor. President Andrews' letter to the officials is as follows:

BROWN UNIVERSITY, Sept. 14, '97.
To W. V. Kellen, J. H. Stines and R. G. Hazard, Committee:

Gentlemen: The resolution of the corporation of Brown University on the 1st instant, communicated to me by you, has been carefully considered. I take pleasure in assuring you that the action referred to entirely does away with the scruples which lead to my resignation. At the date, however, when you laid the communication before me, I had undertaken to perform the coming year certain work which, after learning the judgment of the corporation on the subject, I came to regard as incompatible with the duties of the presidency. I, therefore, felt obliged at first to adhere to my resignation, but being now free to give to the university my undivided attention, I have withdrawn my resignation and have notified the secretary of the corporation to that effect.

I am, gentlemen,
Yours with sincere esteem.
[Signed]
E. BENJAMIN ANDREWS.

To Be Fired Across Deck.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The battleship Texas has been ordered to sail from Hampton Roads to the New York navy yard to be docked on the 25th instant. Acting Secretary Roosevelt has ordered that on the way north the big twelve-inch rifles in both turrets be fired across the deck of the ship.

This has never been done, and Mr. Roosevelt regards it is expedient to settle at once all doubt that may exist as to the ability of the ship to resist this severe strain. The Texas turrets are arranged diagonally, with the purpose of enabling all of the guns to be fired either fore and aft or across the decks.

The fore and aft fire has been tried in a measure, but the fear of starting the decks has caused the delay in testing the cross fire. Mr. Roosevelt will not be at all disappointed if this test develops some weakness, but it is desirable that this be ascertained positively, in order that steps might be taken to correct the fault if one there be.

Rioting Miners.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 14.—The Darr Mine, on the Youghlogheny river, operated by Osborne and Seager, of of Cleveland, O., was the scene of a riot today, which resulted in injuries that will be fatal to at least one man. The machine miners started to work on Monday and today a mob of diggers who were opposed to the men working gathered at the pit to give the workers a hot reception when they came out of the mines. As the miners began coming out they were stoned back into the pit, and several shots were fired into the pit mouth, after the retreating men.

One man whose name cannot be learned, more daring than the rest ventured into the open, and was stoned unmercifully. He will probably die from the effects of the abuse.

A New Case in Mobile.

MOBILE, ALA., Sept. 14.—Another case of yellow fever was officially announced this afternoon by Doctors Ketchum and Guiteras, as existing in Mobile. The patient is a motorman. His sickness has not been traced to to any other point.

Quarantine in Charleston.

CHARLESON, S. C., Sept. 14.—The board of health today established strict quarantine regulations against New Orleans and other fever-infected cities and districts. The quarantine will be strictly maintained.

HUNG BY ANGRY CITIZENS.

This is the Way They Do Things in Indiana.

FIVE MEN BITE DUST TOGETHER.

They Were Caught in the Act of Committing Burglary and Were Quickly Elevated.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 15.—A report has reached this city to the effect that five men were hanged in Versailles, Ind., a small town, last night. They were caught in the act of committing burglary, and they were captured and strung up by a crowd of angry citizens.

A great many burglaries have been committed in the neighborhood of Versailles recently, which stirred the people to a frenzy, and they set about with a strong determination to make an example of some of the thieves, whicht they carried out with "neatness and dispatch" last night.

Versailles is the county seat of Ripley county, and has a population of about 1,000.

Those hanged were: Lyle Levi, Bert Andrews, Clifford Gordon, William Jenkins and Henry Shulloff, and hail from Milan, Surmon and the surrounding villages. The greatest excitement prevails.

Indian Editor Sentenced.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

BOMBAY, Sept. 15.—Gangadhar Tilak, the native member of the legislative council and partner of Eshoo Madow Bal in publishing the newspaper Kesari, who was arrested with Bal on July 27 on the charge of inciting the natives to disaffection, was sentenced today to eighteen months' imprisonment. Bal, who was the printer of the paper, was discharged.

The Fight Still On In West Virginia.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

FAIRMOUNT, W. VA., Sept. 15.—"We are going to fight the battle until every coal operator in West Virginia recognizes Union labor" said W. A. Carney today, in summing up the mining situation in West Virginia. "The strike will be protracted until the operators in this State sign the scale."

Stewart Favors Chicago Platform.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15th.—Senator Stewart of Nevada, and former senator Pugh, of Alabama, both pronounced silver advocates are at the Hoffman House here, where the Democratic State Committee is holding its session. It is said here that they will upheld the Chicago platform.

Quarantine Against River and Rail.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 15.—Health Officer Withrow will establish a quarantine against all southern points entering this city by river or rail. This decision is due to yesterday's report that yellow fever refugees are coming here in numbers.

Sharon Miners Remain Out.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Luetgent Trial Proceeds.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Juror J. E. Fowler, whose illness yesterday caused an adjournment of the Luetgert murder trial until Wednesday, was much improved today, and will, his physicians say, be able to attend tomorrow's session. Luetgent spent a quiet day in jail, receiving few callers, but being apparently in the best of humor.

ALL STILL QUIET AT HAZELTON.

Soldiers Trading Ball Cartridges for Drinks at the Saloons.

By Wire to the THE TELEGRAM.

HAZELTON, Sept. 15.—Everything is quiet here today and the awe of the military force still continues. There will be no attempt at any sort of violence or vengeance while the soldiers remain. There are rumors of impending trouble continually afloat, however, and they may have the effect of keeping the troops here for some time to come. A considerable sensation was stirred up by a report that some of the saloons are exchanging drinks with the soldiers for ball cartridges.

A TRIPPLE MURDERER ESCAPES.

Used the Gallows on Which he Was to be Hanged as a Ladder.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 15.—Edward C. Flanagan, who murdered three persons a little over a year ago, and was tried, convicted and sentenced to be hanged next week, escaped from Dekalb county jail at Decatur this morning.

He evidently escaped by climbing out of the window of his cell to the gallows on which Horace Perry was hanged last week, and which was left standing until Flanagan could be executed upon it.

NOBODY SERIOUSLY INJURED.

AS TO THE PARAMOUNT ISSUE.

In the course of an able editorial the Fayetteville Observer announces in italics that "It will advocate anything necessary to the paramount issue of white supremacy." Undoubtedly it is the privilege of the Observer to decide what it will advocate and how far it will go in such advocacy. At the same time there may be differences of opinion as to what constitutes the "paramount issue" or as to what sacrifices could and should be made for the sake of the issue.

We believe that to make white supremacy the paramount issue is both bad patriotism and bad politics. The Anglo-Saxon must rule in North Carolina of course; that is a question that it is not worth while stopping to discuss. He has always ruled wherever he has set his foot and will continue to do so. It is both for his own interest and the interest of the negro that he should rule in this state. The importance of his ruling as a race can not be overestimated. But we may as well face the facts—he rules in this state today. Wherever the negro is found in office he has been placed there by the co-operation and support of white men. This is very reprehensible, but to say that because it is true the negro rules is a futile waste of words.

The negro in this state has shown comparatively little inclination to attempt to rule; he has, for the most part, accepted the rule of the white man as inevitable. Wherever it is otherwise the white man is to blame. Wherever it is otherwise it must and will be remedied: but the fact that a negro here and there holds an office is merely an incident; it is only a single scene from the whole play; it is not the whole play nor even the worst part of it.

The paramount issue in North Carolina, just as in any other state, is clean, honest, honorable, efficient government. The government that we have at the present time is neither of these. The placing of negroes in power is only a single one of its many enormities; from the beginning to the present it has shown itself corrupt, greedy, ignorant, vindictive; for all of this the white man, not the negro, is responsible. To blame the negro then is to reverse cause and effect; he has never been in the inner circles of the cabal that has plotted the spoliation of the state for its own advantage; he is the tool, not the intelligent hand. When men who are something more than pothouse politicians are placed in power, men whose heads will not be turned by a little brief authority, men who are not already soured by a quarter of a century of defeat, and whose appetites have not been whetted by long reaching after what fled the grasp, white supremacy will take care of itself.

Let us put the responsibility where it belongs—on the men who, by shuffling together the elements of ignorance and unrest, gained power only to abuse it. Against them, and not against the ignorant negro, the just indignation of an outraged citizenship should be directed.

The issue of clean and efficient government is one that appeals with equal force to the citizen from the mountains, the piedmont and the seaboard; experience has shown that fear of negro domination is a poor drawing card in the west. The citizen of Buncombe, however, has no more pleasure in seeing his money squandered and his State disgraced than the citizen of Hyde.

There is no necessity for the Democratic party to grow militant afresh on the question of a white man's government: its record speaks for it; every man knows what to expect of it in that direction; to fight a campaign on that issue is superfluous. The fact that it stood for the rule of the white man did not save it from defeat in 1894; that alone will not bring it victory in 1898. The Democratic party has won all the victories it is destined to win upon that ground solely; for a quarter of a century it was the shibboleth in State politics; it failed once, and once is enough. Political parties do not win victories by walking backward; the potency of the old call to arms is not all gone, but the sooner we realize that it has weakened the better for us.

We are free to confess that race prejudice seems a pretty narrow platform for a great political party to stand upon; there is too much of passion and too little of reason in campaigns fought upon that issue: that course can not bring permanent results.

It is not white supremacy that we want; we already have that. But what we do want is a government by white men who are fit to govern; a government by men who know something of the needs and possibilities of the state and standing as the representatives of a party that in turn stands for principle will guide the state safely towards better things. That is the issue and the only issue that can secure the constant adherence of intelligent men.

We do not underestimate the value of white supremacy either as a coherent principle for a political party or in its effects upon the future of the state; but we do deprecate the ill-feeling and increasing friction between the races that must follow forcing it to the front as the main issue. It is not necessary to do so. The record of the heterogenous aggregation now in power is writ in letters large and black; it cannot be concealed: it is read of all men. If the Democratic party can not win upon the open proposition of what the precious gang now in power has done "white supremacy" will not avail to save the day.

IF the man with the faith cure at his finger's ends, will kindly lay healing hands upon the fellow who borrows his neighbor's paper and then abuses it, he can get the free advertising from the newspapers for which he longs, and the neighbor's back yard for a scampering ground to boot.

WHEN the Governor finally announces his decision in the railroad commission matter, the Messrs. Wilson will see a new wealth of meaning in the old saying, "There is danger in delay."

SHERIFF MARTIN'S tale of how his life was endangered does not dovetail very beautifully with the report that nineteen of the miners killed at Lattimer were shot in the back.

IF the United States government finally decides to dig the Nicaragua canal, they can find in Greensboro some gentlemen of ripe experience in the canal digging business.

THE number of union soldiers' widows in existence suggests a question as to how large a pension the average matrimonial agency realizes in the course of a year.

Scotland Neck is to have two new telephone lines and an exchange.

Greenville, N. C., has three new tobacco stemmeries started this season.

The sixty-first session of Davidson College opens with very flattering prospects.

Handy Harris, one of the convicts in the state prison, has become violently insane.

The State Board of Pharmacy is in session at Raleigh examining applicants for license.

The little daughter of Hal Bobbitt, of Raleigh, was seriously hurt in an accident yesterday.

Bingham school has opened, near Asheville, with 75 pupils from other states in attendance.

Center township, in Stanly county, voted $10,000 toward building a railroad from Aberdeen to Concord via Norwood.

A suit is to be brought which will involve the title to 170,000 acres of land in the counties of Columbus and Brunswick.

Dr. C. F. Nichols, of Boston, is in the state and is prospecting with a view to establishing a sanitarium for consumptives.

The town of Elkin will put in electric lights, as 30 residences and enough business houses will take them to justify the enterprise.

Wiley Keith, the Winston fireman who was so badly injured recently, had his right arm amputated just below the elbow yesterday.

The negro Jones, who murdered his wife in Wilson, is still at large and the citizens of that county are charging the sheriff with incompetency.

Yesterday the following fourth-class postmasters were appointed: H. D. Buckner, Alexander; J. C. Le Grand, Briar Creek; W. C. Wentz, Chronicle; C. A. Setzer, Edith; M. E. Carroll, Neatman; J. P. Brantley, Perth; G. A. Banieley, Shallow Ford.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer contributes the following: "Fleas by the pound is rather a novel way to handle the insects, but it is asserted that 28,000 pounds of bagging was shipped here to a farmer. It was weighed and found correct. Fleas were found in it. The bagging was unrolled and beaten, and then, when it was weighed again, it only weighed 22,256½ pounds, so there must have been 5,743½ pounds of fleas in the bagging. How's that for a good one?" It is undoubtedly a good one.

GRAND EDUCATIONAL RALLY.

High Point Juniors Will Celebrate Friday, Opening Day.

Friday is the opening day of the High Point graded schools, and it will be a gala day in the history of the town. The Jr. O. U. A. M. will take advantage of the occasion to present a flag and a Bible to the school, and some splendid addresses, fine music and a big dinner will be the order of the day.

The address of welcome will be delivered by Dr. W. G. Bradshaw, of High Point; the flag will be presented to the school in behalf of the Jr. O. U. A. M. by Rev. C. A. G. Thomas, of Fayetteville, and will be accepted by Rev. W. Lee Harrell, of High Point. Dr. Charles D. McIver, of the State Normal College, will present a Bible to the graded school in behalf of the Jr. O. U. A. M., and Superintendent George H. Crowell, of the High Point graded school, will accept it. Hon. Charles H. Mebane, superintendent of public instruction in North Carolina, and Dr. E. A. Alderman, president of the University, will also make addresses.

This is a splendid program, and the Juniors are anxious to have a large crowd turn out. The new graded school building is one of the most elegant in the State, and it will be worth a trip to High Point to see this structure alone.

It is announced in Paris that Louise Michel, the noted French anarchist, will come to the United States in October to preach anarchy.

It is reported that George L. Rives, assistant secretary of state under Cleveland, will succeed Seth Low as President of Columbia.

John E. Redmond, the Parnellite leader and member of Parliament, says Ireland is threatened with a famine almost equal to that of 1846.

In New York Hugh J. Grant declared he will not run for mayor and it's believed the Tammany candidate will be a German-American.

The funerals of a number of men who were killed by Sheriff Martin's deputies, took place at Hazleton without disorder.

Weekly Crop Bulletin.

The Weekly Crop Bulletin says the week ending Monday, September 13, has been extremely unfavorable. The drought has prevailed for nearly 20 days, and has now become very serious. The past seven days have been very hot; not a drop of rain fell anywhere in the state. All reports received indicate a serious deterioration in crops since September 1st. Cotton blooms has been irreparably injured. Squares, blooms and leaves are falling off, half grown bolls have cracked and dropped, and the top crop is now almost a complete failure; premature opening is increasing rapidly and the outlook now is for a comparatively poor crop. Cotton is being picked rapidly.

A good deal of the late corn is drying up while still immature.

What tobacco remains uncut is firing badly, though the cures so far made have been excellent; fortunately the bulk of this crop has been gathered. The week was favorable only for such work as picking cotton, saving fodder (which is completed) and making hay. Fall plowing and seeding are impossible until rain comes. Pastures and clover are perishing for lack of moisture.

Turnips, late peas, potatoes, peanuts and rice are all suffering from drought. Western branches and wells are getting very low.
